

Modern Entertainment & Tech Gatherings in Norway

1. Nordic Game Conference (Stavanger)

An influential Nordic gathering for game developers and publishers. The Stavanger edition brings together Norway's creative talent for talks, networking, and project pitching sessions. Ideal for startups, students, and creative professionals.

2. Arctic LAN (Tromsø)

A northern Norwegian LAN and esports event that combines free-play zones, tournaments, and VR stations. Known for its focus on youth, community, and digital inclusion in Tromsø's cold but energetic environment.

3. Oslo Game Jam

A creative sprint weekend where teams build games from scratch in 48 hours. Held in Oslo, it unites developers, artists, and writers in a community-centered, non-competitive atmosphere.

4. EGS Summer Tour

A summer roadshow across several cities featuring casual competitions, influencer meetups, and open-air play zones. Includes live stages, FIFA duels, and photo ops with streaming personalities.

5. GameDev Norway Networking Evenings

A recurring series of meetups in cities like Bergen and Oslo, connecting indie developers, publishers, and students. Events include demos, talks, and job discussions in a casual café setting.
